

Vintage Mirage Consignment Contract

VM staff must pre-approve all items for consignment. Next these items must be dry cleaned & returned on hangers in plastic. Excellent condition is the rule. Items cannot have any holes, stains, animal dander, smoke or perfume smells, missing buttons, non-functioning zippers or frayed seams. Jewelry & accessories must be in pristine condition, clasps working and no missing stones or crystals.

VM consigns designer items from 1920 to today- day dresses, cocktail dresses, coats, pants, designer purses, blouses, sweaters, long evening gowns, lingerie, negligee, hats, scarves, jewelry & accessories.

All items will not be returned once they have been delivered to VM.

During the consignment period if the item gets stained, buttons fall off, or zipper is broken, consignor will pay for the dry cleaning and repair work. Leather items may need extra conditioning, consignor will pay for this conditioning. Some repairs or upkeep can be done by VM staff & charge will be deducted.

Further, since items are offered on an Ecommerce site, VM and Consignor will split the additional fee charged by Etsy, Wix, Instagram or PayPal charges on a 50/50 basis.

Vintage Mirage will be responsible for determining the initial sale price of the consigned item. The price begins below the market value.

All items will be subjected to periodic markdowns, which are left up to the discretion of VM.

Items are placed on consignment for a period of up to 16 calendar months. At the end of this sale time, if the item has not sold, the item will be donated, and the consignor will receive the final report and a tax-exempt letter of donation from the non-profit organization.

The calendar months of sale are based upon the seasons- Spring/Summer and Fall/Winter; jewelry will remain longer on consignment. The space capacity of the store for the type and season of the garment does affect the time on the sales floor.

Vintage Mirage will not be held responsible for fire, theft or any damages that may occur in a retail environment.

There is a $3.00 handling fee deducted from the statement for administrative work, when the item is sold. All additional costs such as repairs, online fees will be itemized on the statement.

VM will split the final sales price of an item 50/ 50% with the Consignor/Client.

Consignor's checks are mailed out at the end of the month, following the time sold, and providing that the check is $25.00 or more. We request that you cash the checks within 60 days or they become void.
